OFFICIALS WARM OVER ALASKA BILL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 16.—The administration railroad bill came up in the Senate today for discussion. The appearance of the bill precipitated the sharpest debate that has taken place in the Senate this session.

In connection with the bill, which is considered one of the President's pet measures, the name of the chief executive was bandied about with a freedom which amounted to recklessness.

OFFICIALS WARM UP OVER ALASKA BILL.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 16.—During the hearing on the bill to change the form of government of Alaska before the House Committee on Territories today, a lively set-to took place between Governor W. G. Hoggatt and Delegate James Wickham. Sharp words were used by the Governor and Delegate from Alaska, and the appellations turncoat, betrayer of confidence and misstatement of facts were made use of by the two gentlemen.

IMMENSE AUDIENCE HEARS J. F. MOORE

International Secretary Lectured at Central Union Church

The Central Union Parish House was crowded last evening when John F. Moore, international traveling secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who is here for ten days, gave a stereoscopic lecture on the "World Wide Y. M. C. A. Movement."

The lecture was prefaced with hymn singing, a short prayer by Rev. Dr. Scudier, a passage from the scriptures, and another hymn. Dr. Scudier stated that: "Young men were dedicating themselves to the great work of redeeming men and that the day was not far distant when there would be Y. M. C. A. buildings in every land."

With the briefest introduction, Mr. Moore got right down to his subject and told of the wonderful work the Association was doing among the army, navy, railroad, students, city and country and among industrial workers in all parts of the world.

"I call it a privilege that young men are able to come forth and proclaim Jesus as their Savior," stated Mr. Moore. Many of the slides were impressive as they portrayed the magnitude of the work accomplished by the Y. M. C. A. movement. The speaker paid a fitting tribute to Sir George Williams, the founder of the Y. M. C. A., who, with twelve young men, started this great movement among men by holding Bible meetings on the top floor of a dry goods store in London.

Pictures of Robert R. McBurney, Richard C. Morse and other well known leaders in the Y. M. C. A. were thrown upon the canvas. A magnificent picture of the Victoria railway station at Bombay, India, was exhibited. Mr. Moore stated that the officials of the running shops at Jamalpur were in sympathy with the Y. M. C. A. movement among their employees and were ready to subscribe $100 a month towards subscribing to a fund for that purpose.

One of the most interesting slides was a copy of a letter from the Emperor of Japan to the Y. M. C. A., in which it stated that $5000 had been sent to the Association in recognition of the splendid work done by the Association during the Russo-Japanese war.

Another unique picture was that of the launch given by Miss Helen Miller Gould to the Y. M. C. A. for use on the rivers of Alaska. The military posts were few and far apart and religious services were seldom held. The soldiers asked that someone might be sent to conduct services. Miss Gould gave the launch and the Y. M. C. A. now conduct regular services.

Mr. Moore showed pictures of men being instructed in automobile work in order that they might qualify as chauffeurs, or as the speaker humorously stated, to prepare themselves for an active campaign against the "Quick and the Dead" brigade, who were responsible for so many deaths and accidents each year, by careless driving and management of automobiles.

Other pictures portrayed men and boys learning the poultry business, or as Mr. Moore humorously stated: "They were preparing to take their degree as professors of 'Chicology.'"

At noon today Mr. Moore spoke at the Honolulu Iron Works and will confer with the building committee of the Y. M. C. A. at 4 p. m. At 5:30 p. m. he will speak at the Marine Barracks; at 7:30 he will meet the membership committee and at 9 p. m. will address the boys' gym class. On Monday at the members' rally, special music will be played, as Canha's Glee Club has been secured and Mr. Moore will speak on "How to Make Things Hum."

ART TREASURES NOW ON VIEW

Thirty-Fourth Exhibition Pronounced the Best Ever Held

The thirty-fourth exhibition of the Kilaheha Art League was opened to members last evening by special invitation, and judging from the excellent exhibits and the crowded state of the rooms, it was pronounced by many to be the finest collection of art treasures ever exhibited in the galleries of this well-known building.

The rooms were artistically decorated with ferns, flowers and potted plants, and, with the well-arranged lighting effects, the pictures and other art treasures were seen to great advantage.

During the evening refreshments were served and Mr. Falk, Dr. Shorb and Prof. Kahl, playing as a trio, gave an exquisite rendition of one of the classic compositions. Mr. Falk presided at the piano, Dr. Shorb the cello and Prof. Kahl the violin.

It would be impossible to describe each exhibit adequately. All were pleasing, because they were so different. Each had its own charm and individuality, so that one could go from one picture to the other with a feeling of rest and anticipation.

Amongst those who exhibited were the following: Miss Julie E. Raymond, "Early Morning, Mauna Kea, Hilo"; Annie H. Parke, "Morning Light, Pearl Harbor"; Henrietta Fangel, "Santa Maria Novella, Florence"; Cordella Gilman, "The Beach"; Lilla G. Marshall, "Hawaiian Mullet"; D. Howard Hitchcock, "Evening"; "The Flame Tree"; "Halemauau," "Late Afternoon," "Storm in the Canyon," and many other pictures typical of Hawaiian scenery; Grace Robertson, "At the Beach"; Anna B. Tucker, "Evening in Wailua"; Flora Jones, "Hegonias"; Caroline Haskins Gurrey, "Mary Louise"; A. R. Gurrey Jr., "In the Studio"; A. N. Sinclair, "Dawn" (exhibited at the Sixth American Salon); Rosa Hooper Plotner, an exquisite miniature of Maud Muller, and other artistic studies from the brush of this well-known miniature painter.

The exhibition will be open to the public all this week, from 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Amongst those present were the following members of the society and their friends: Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Bryan, President and Mrs. J. W. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Gignaux, Mrs. Hanemann, Rev. and Mrs. Felmy, Mrs. and Miss Ward, Mrs. A. B. Tucker, Mrs. P. Jones, Miss A. H. Parke, Mr. and Mrs. Guesefeld, Mrs. and Miss Weaver, Miss Church, Dr. and Mrs. Hobdy, Mr. and Miss Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. A. Constabel, Mrs. P. L. Horne, Dr. and Mrs. Ricknell, Prof. R. S. Hosmer, Mr. Vincent, Mr. and Miss Ehrhorn, Miss H. Fangel, Mr. and Mrs. Webster, Mrs. W. H. Cornwell, Miss Lawrence, Miss Schuur, Mr. and Mrs. Falk, Miss Margaret Giddings, Dr. and Mrs. Straub, Mrs. Rosa Plotner, Prof. Kahl, Dr. Shorb.

The McCumber bill to provide for second homestead entries was ordered favorably reported by the Senate Committee on Public Lands.

Good Clothes Make Pleased Customers

There is a reason behind the growth of our business, which summed up, simply means customers get satisfaction

The satisfaction begins with the purchase of the suit, and lasts through the long wear of the garment. But to guard against mistakes, we say and give "Money back to the customer who wants it."

Some Men Know But Forget

Money Will Not Buy Health

And until the aches and ills of the food transgressor attack them the value of pure and wisely selected food is forgotten.

Sometimes it takes a right sharp spell of sickness to prove the close relation of food and health—that Pure Foods mean perfect digestion and pure blood—the true secret of comfort and good health.

Grape-Nuts

Is a pre-digested, scientifically-prepared food that is readily absorbed by the weakest stomach, and builds up body and brain.

It has brought thousands of voluntary testimonials from people who have gained health from its daily use.

"The Road to Wellville" Pointed the Way.

Down at Hot Springs, Ark., the visitors have all sorts of complaints, but it is a subject of remark that the great majority of them have some trouble with stomach and bowels. This may be partly attributed to the heavy medicines.

Naturally, under the conditions, the question of food is very prominent.

A young man states that he had suffered for nine years from stomach and bowel trouble, had two operations which did not cure, and was at last threatened with appendicitis.

He went to Hot Springs for rheumatism and his stomach trouble got worse. One day at breakfast the waiter, knowing his condition, suggested he try Grape-Nuts and cream, which he did, and found the food agreed with him perfectly.

After the second day he began to sleep peacefully at night, different than he had for years. The perfect digestion of the food quieted his nervous system and made sleep possible.

He says: "The next morning I was astonished to find my condition of constipation had disappeared. I could not believe it true after suffering for so many years; then I took more interest in the food, read the little book, 'The Road to Wellville,' and started following the simple directions."

"I have met with such results that in the last five weeks I have gained eight pounds in spite of hot baths which take away the flesh from anyone."

"A friend of mine has been entirely cured of a bad case of indigestion and stomach trouble by using Grape-Nuts Food and cream alone for breakfast."

"There is one thing in particular—I have noticed a great change in my mental condition. Formerly I could hardly remember anything, and now the mind seems unusually acute and retentive. I can memorize practically anything I desire."
